A Ministry of St. Patrick's Catholic Parish

Shortly after I arrived in Fremont to begin my new assignment at St. Patrick's and Archbishop Bergan Catholic School, I was able to attend the Bergan Alumni Reunion and 50th Anniversary celebration of the school as Archbishop Bergan Catholic School. It was good to meet many of the alumni and hear the stories of years past. As I listened I could not help but hear and experience the great pride all of you have in your alma mater. Of course, since I am a graduate of Cedar Catholic in Hartington, NE there was a good rivalry present as well. I am happy to say that I now have some green apparel and proudly wear it at our various games and functions.

One of the things that makes Archbishop Bergan Catholic School unique is that it is still one of the few parish schools in the Archdiocese of Omaha as well as the country. That means, that our school is a specific ministry of St. Patrick Parish. In fact, nearly 50% of the Sunday stewardship of St. Patrick's goes to operate our school. This allows us to maintain a reasonable tuition rate for our families. In the Omaha metro area the average tuition cost per student this year is nearly $8000.00 for high school and over $2500 for elementary. The tuition for one student at Archbishop Bergan this year is $3300.00 for high school and $2300 for elementary. That is because of the support of the parish.

Though, Archbishop Bergan Catholic School will continue to be an important and crucial ministry of St. Patrick's, we necessarily need to increase the participation of our alumni and other supporters of the school in the fundraising and support of our school's general operations. As an alum, you hopefully see the benefit of a Catholic education at Archbishop Bergan. I pray that you experienced a broadening of your own Faith, Knowledge and Service and can understand the importance of supporting this important ministry for generations to come. I look forward to meeting many of you during my time at Archbishop Bergan Catholic School.

May God Bless You!
Fr. Jim Keiter

All New Bergan Knights Forever

The Alumni Newsletter for Archbishop Bergan Catholic School has gone through many transformations over the years. Our newsletter has gone from large to small, from color to black and white and many steps in between. Additionally, most schools also publish an annual report to honor their many alumni donors and other benefactors to the school. This was last done for Archbishop Bergan in 2008. As Fr. Dave, our school President works to improve communications, advancement and the many other aspects of our school so continued generations are served by this great institution, we are excited to release the revised: Bergan Knights Forever Alumni Newsletter. This issue is being published in October; however, future publications will arrive quarterly in December, March, June and September. This issue along with our annual September publication will include our Archbishop Bergan Catholic School Annual Report. We want to feature stories on our alumni each issue and so we hope you take the time to update us on news from you! We hope you enjoy Bergan Knights Forever.

Knight Notes from the President

This year has been an opportunity for us to celebrate and remember the many blessings that God has shared with us through 50 years of Catholic education at Archbishop Bergan Catholic High School. As we begin our 51st year, there is certainly a renewed sense of excitement and hope among the students, staff, and families that we serve. We know that we have been given a precious gift by the past generations of priests and religious, parishioners, parents, and generous benefactors who have made Bergan what it is today. Through your time at Bergan, you were recipients of their sacrifice and generosity as well. Today we pause to give thanks for all that has been done in the past, and we look forward to the future with a new commitment to "instill a passion, as exemplified by Christ, for faith, knowledge, and service" in our students.

As you have been a part of our past, we hope that we can count on you to be a part of our future. I truly believe that our mission as a Catholic school provides a solid framework for the students we serve, so that they are prepared for all of the challenges and opportunities that are waiting for them. With God's guidance and grace, and with your prayers and support, our future is very promising. Together, as the "Bergan Family," we are destined for great things! Fr. Dave Belt

St. Patrick's/Archbishop Bergan Alumni Reunion News

From the Bergan Knights Alumni Office

Hello to all! It's October and the reunion celebrating the 50th anniversary of Archbishop Bergan Catholic School and the 60th anniversary of St. Patrick's High School is history. As usual, I enjoyed seeing all the alumni and the teachers who returned this summer.

It is very difficult to locate past teachers. Many of our past teachers (and alumni) have dropped their landlines in favor of cell phones, making it nearly impossible to track them down. However, there were over 20 teachers who attended the reunion banquet. Total attendance for the banquet topped over 200, and everyone had a great time visiting with one another. I would like to especially thank Sue Wewel who put together video interviews of past teachers, secretaries, custodians and priests to name a few. Thanks also to Pat Dix ('91) who created a slide show of pictures taken mostly from yearbooks. Our Master and Mistress of Ceremonies were John Lamme ('63) and Keri Hanson Pittenger ('87) and we are grateful to them for the fine job they did. As usual, there was not enough time to visit with all the visiting alumni and teachers but thank you to all who made our anniversary celebration a grand success.

As we continue to re-work our alumni newsletter we are hoping to gather more stories about our alumni that we can share with everyone such as this issue's story on Jack Riggins ('93). For example, The Missouri River flooding this past summer has been unbelievable. Usually flooding lasts a couple of weeks and then it's over. This year the flooding along the Missouri has been overwhelming. Interstate 29 all the way from Sioux City, Iowa to Rockport, Missouri has been closed in various stretches since mid-June. Whole houses, farm buildings, and anything else in the pathway of the Mighty MO have been completely submerged in water and many have been swept away altogether. We pray that none of our alumni were impacted by this natural disaster, but some may have been. If you would like to share your story please contact us by phone, email or mail. Our prayers continue to go out to all those suffering from the many natural disasters encountered by our nation this year.

I, along with Fr. Dave and Fr. Jim will be contacting many of our alumni to invite them to consider supporting our great school through the annual appeal. I look forward to speaking to and visiting with many of you.

Again, please let me know if you have a change of address, phone, and email or would like to share any stories for future issues of our Bergan Knights Forever Alumni Newsletter. Check us out also on Facebook. We want to keep in touch with you! I wish you all good health and God's blessings.

Huskers Receive a True Gift of Unity

By Tom Shatel

OMAHA WORLD-HERALD COLUMNIST

Typically I have no use for sports analogies to war. Sports are not war. Sports are entertainment.

But in the case of Jack Riggins' American flag, I'm happy to make an exception.

Riggins is a veteran Navy SEAL from Fremont, Neb. His official title is "Executive Officer for Naval Special Warfare Unit." He spent the past decade in Afghanistan fighting terrorists. There are football heroes. Riggins is a real hero.

Riggins is currently back in Afghanistan, but last month Riggins was back in his native Nebraska. He was invited to speak to the Nebraska football team. He did. And how.

According to players who were in the room, Riggins' speech blew them away. He was brutally honest. He told war stories. Real war stories. He talked about growing up a Husker fan. He compared some of the missions he served on to some of the great victories in Nebraska football history. He fired up the Unity Council, saying, "As the Unity Council goes, so goes the 2011 season."

He fired up the whole room and by the end of it, the entire team wanted to follow him out the door.

Riggins left the Huskers one gift. An American flag. And not just any flag. He presented them the flag that he personally carried around Afghanistan for 10 years.

That's the flag you saw Jared Crick and Austin Jones carry out to the field the past two home games.

"He let us know that that flag bagged a lot of terrorists," said NU senior safety Austin Cassidy, who helped carry the flag out for the season opener. "He told us to do what we wanted with the flag, just don't let it touch the ground."

The Unity Council met with Assistant Athletic Director Jeff Jamrog and decided to make the flag the Huskers' flag for 2011. The team will carry it out to the field in both home and away games. During games, it's on the team sideline, in a stand. During the week, it hangs in the locker room.

"It's a cool reminder that there are a lot bigger things going on," Cassidy said. "His talk was one of the best talks I've ever heard in my life. We have some very proud Americans on our team. They are very patriotic. That fired up everyone."
