Knight Notes from the President

At Bergan's 2012 graduation ceremony, I had an opportunity to offer a few words to the newest members of our alumni. I shared with them that Doctor Jonas Salk once said that the greatest gifts that parents could give to their children are "roots and wings." Through our work and ministry at Bergan, we have the honor of assisting parents in their primary task of raising their children, of giving them "roots" in faith, knowledge, and service. But there comes a time when our students have to be set free, and allowed to go into the world to make a difference through their love, talents, and abilities. I asked the graduates to always remember that, wherever this great journey of life takes them, they are always "Bergan Knights." They will always be a member of our family, and we will continue to support them with our love and prayers.

As members of Bergan's alumni, you are always connected to our community and our mission of educating and forming the young people that have been entrusted to us. The students that we serve today rely on your prayerful support and generosity in order to become firmly rooted in faith, knowledge, and service.

Like any household of faith, Saint Patrick's Parish and Archbishop Bergan Catholic School need financial resources in order to fulfill our mission. We are in the beginning stages of planning a capital campaign, so that we can raise the money we need to pay off our elementary school building loan and to pay our operating debt. We hope that we can count on you to be a part of our success, and that you will consider a gift in this campaign.

While we look ahead to a campaign to reduce our debt, I think it is also important to take a moment and appreciate how far we have come as a parish and school community. In the past year, we have seen an increase in Sunday Mass attendance; there is an increase of over 18% in Sunday giving; our parish and school expenses are well below budget; we recently achieved our financial goal for the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal; the enrollment at Archbishop Bergan Catholic School is gradually increasing; the school re-structuring plan that we implemented a year ago was more efficient while making our program of study more effective. Among the most encouraging news that I can share is that, even though we anticipated a deficit in this year's budget of $280,000, our projections show that, between increased income and decreased expenses, we should end the fiscal year with a balanced budget!

While we have some work ahead of us, our future is bright. The success of our coming campaign will dramatically reduce the interest that we will have to pay on our loans, while at the same time help strengthen the financial position of our parish and school. This, in turn, will allow us to focus our full attention to ministering to our parish families and educating our children in the Catholic faith.

"Roots and wings." As you have been given the gift of a solid, faith-based education, I ask that you help us build upon the legacy of faith and service that has been entrusted to us. Help us to educate and prepare the next generation of leaders in our Church, country, and community.

Father David Belt

"Don't wait to share your stories of the "dash."

Though school let out for summer break on Ascension Thursday, it never seems to be summer until we've celebrated Memorial Day Weekend. As a kid growing up in Hartington, NE we had a family tradition of always taking flowers to the cemetery on Memorial Day morning and then staying for the Mass that Monsignor Werner would offer at the cemetery.

This past Memorial Day, I had the privilege of celebrating the Mass at Calvary cemetery in Fremont. Over 400 people were present to celebrate the Mass on this very special day. This is a day when we especially remember those men and women who have served our country and gave their lives protecting the many freedoms that we cherish.

After celebrating the Mass, I visited with several people and wondered around the cemetery for a bit. One of the traditions that I noticed at Calvary cemetery was that deceased alumni of Archbishop Bergan Catholic School had a plaque and Bergan flag placed at their grave. As I looked at these various graves and headstones, I was reminded of the story of the dash. In short, the story of the dash is a story of all the life that is lived in the dash (-) between a person's birth and their death. Many, many stories can be told from all that happens in that "dash."

We shouldn't wait until someone dies however to tell those many good news stories from the "dash." Archbishop Bergan is blessed to have over 2000 alumni through its 50+ years of graduating classes. Imagine all the great stories of the accomplishments and good news that Bergan alumni have to share.. Share those stories with us for future newsletters. Join us for the annual reunion and share those stories. Don't wait to share your stories of the "dash."

Alumni teaching at Archbishop Bergan Catholic School

The main reason I decided to teach at Bergan was because of the "Bergan Family". I love the atmosphere at Bergan and being able to share my faith as a part of teaching. I think it is a true testament that so many alumni (I think there are 10 of us now) have returned to Bergan to work and send their children here. My husband Ryan ('05) and I got married June 4, 2011 and don't have children yet but we are firm believers in the education of the whole child that Bergan provides.

I got my degree in Education and Human Sciences and an endorsement in coaching at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. I just completed my first year of teaching. This past year I taught 2nd grade and I loved it! Within the last week I found out that next year I will be taking on the role of a resource teacher for the elementary building. I am also very excited about this new adventure and the opportunity to help students K-6 succeed academically, socially and in their faith!

The other teachers and faculty here at Bergan are like family...partially because most of my teachers and coaches are still teaching here. At first I thought it would be weird and that the other staff would treat me like a student still but that has been the farthest from the truth! My high school teachers and coaches have been excited to learn from me just as much as I have been to continue to learn from them.

The elementary staff is the best group of people that I have ever worked with! It is great to get to come to "work" everyday and be with your best friends and to be able to share and grow in our faith together.

Each newsletter we will feature one of our own in no particular order, who has come back to grace the halls of our school in either the Preschool/Elementary Building or the Jr. High/Sr. High Building to teach future alumni. As of this writing, the alumni teaching here are: Patti Puls Bowman (84), Kate Wewel Hurst (88), Kim Moore Diekmann (90), Angie Fisher Kempf (90), Kris Moore Janke (92), Danielle Schmitz Paulson (93), Christopher Paulson (95), Ryan Stieren (02), Seth Mruz (05) and Katie Belak Nielson (06). Starting to teach next fall will be Cindy Mahlberg Nielsen (73).

Kindergarten Graduation

Parents, Grandparents and friends gather with Principal Ron Beacom and teachers, Patti (Puls, '84) Bowman and Lori McIntyre to honor the Kindergarten class with a graduation ceremony. The students sang the "Days of the week," "Movin' on Up" to the music of "Louie Louie," complete with a kick line, "Waves of Mercy" and received "diplomas" to celebrate their accomplishments. (More pictures on www.facebook.com/berganknights)

Sixth Grade Sendoff

The sixth graders celebrated their last full day of school in the Elementary Building with a luncheon and awards as part of the sixth grade sendoff. Next year these students will attend classes in the Jr. High/Sr. High building. Best wishes to all of you!

Welcome Class of 2012 to our Archbishop Bergan Alumni Association

"This class has recognized that they are part of something larger than them and has taken great pride in providing great service to others." Ron Beacom, Principal

We recognize that the primary educators for every student reside in the home with them. Thank you for choosing Archbishop Bergan Catholic School and a Catholic education as your partner for this very important job. It is so exciting to see the young people that come to us in the fall and watch how they grow in one year before leaving us in the spring. God truly does some amazing things when we allow him to work through us.

An equally impressive transition is to see our Kindergarten students as they first experience life in the school (picture and story on page 4) to our seniors as they graduate. The class of 2012 was certainly an impressive group. These 28 young people have taken education and the process of learning very seriously. Each of them sitting has earned a scholarship to continue their education beyond high school. In all, this collective group has accepted a remarkable $763,000+ in academic scholarships alone (turning down over $1 million). Currently, when adding in performance and athletic scholarships, on average, each of these 28 students will have earned over $30,400 in scholarship money. 100% of these students took the ACT test. Their class amassed an average composite score of 24. When averaging just the scores of the 26 students planning to attend 4 year schools, that composite average jumps to a 24.7. (2.6 points higher than the state average and 3.6 points higher than the national average)

Yet, if you got to know these new additions to our alumni, to only list their academic accomplishments would be selling them short. We have three members in the group who cut and helped direct our one-act play to a district championship and 3rd place finish at State. There is a state speech champion and a state speech runner-up in the class. Members of the group led the band to a Superior + rating at the district music contest this past month. This class has recognized that they are part of something larger than them and has taken great pride in providing great service to others. One member sponsored his own blood drive. Another managed to orchestrate a fundraiser benefit for a family whose young son is suffering with cancer. These and others, through their membership in key club, gathered over 11,000 diapers in a diaper drive. They have provided tutoring, coached little leagues and raised funds for charities. Most impressively, the class of 2012 seemed to accomplish all of this without ever taking themselves too seriously and understanding that they are mere instruments for God to do his work. Congratulations to the class of 2012 in carrying out the outstanding tradition that so many have worked hard to start and maintain over our many years of existence.

Ron Beacom
Principal

From the Bergan Knights Alumni Office

Hello to all the Alumni!

Another school year completed and the reunion is just a few weeks away! The reunion banquet is scheduled during the weekend of J.C. Fremont Days, Saturday, July 14th. You can send your payment and registration which is located on page 7 of this newsletter in the mail, or pay and register online at www.berganknights.org click on online donations or stop by the Parish office in person. Registration deadline is Friday, June 29th.

As always, we will have Mass prior to the banquet, including recognition of deceased alumni of the honor classes. The time is changed for Saturday night Mass to 5:00 p.m., followed by a social at St. Patrick's auditorium at 6:00 p.m. with dinner being served at 6:30 p.m.

This year for the first time we are inviting members of our newest alumni, the class of 2012. Principal Ron Beacom will introduce the class as a group and give an accounting of their achievements as a class. They have graduated as the top ranking class academically in the history of the school.

Another banquet first, we will be inducting the first Archbishop Bergan Catholic School Athletic Hall of Fame members as part of the program.

After the banquet and program, a beer garden with a live band is being planned outside the auditorium (pending approval of the city of Fremont and state Liquor Commission) on some of the green space. Those of you who enjoy visiting can remain in the auditorium after the program and share quiet conversation in the auditorium. For our guests who want to get up and dance, there is the beer garden.

There is something for everyone!

Lastly, but of most importance is a request of prayers for Rick Vondenkamp (?72) who is battling cancer.

I hope you plan to attend the reunion this year. I always look forward to seeing and visiting with you. The reunion banquet is my favorite activity of the year!

*As always,
Gary Schmidt*
